

One thing that really helped me was...and why?

- How selfish it is to be afraid to talk to people about Jesus
- Finding out I'm not the only one who's scared to do one on one because I thought it was just me
- Learning how to share Jesus with people my own age without talking "Christianize" and how to start conversations
- Learning to share my faith with others I know I've been missing a lot of opportunities
- The event taught me an actual way to start a conversation and also to pray for the opportunities
- To rekindle my desire to share Christ with new energy
- This training has given me the courage to be bolder in telling people about Christ
- It showed me how to look at other people... to look at them as future inhabitants of Hell
- How to better to talk with those God brings into my life to share His love for them

I think one reason God brought me here was:

- Every circumstance I find myself in is part of God's plan to use me to minister to people
- To encourage me to keep on keeping on

If I were trying to describe this seminar to someone who ought to come next time, I would tell them:

- It is a practical way to naturally share your faith with people
- It was great, and all Christians should hear and practice this. I feel it helped me a lot
- It's a good refresher to remember what's really important.
- It's about making a difference in your life and the lives of everyone you know
- It's going to light a fire under you
- It will change your whole perspective on how God can use us even if we're saved
- It will help you understand how to present others with Good News it gave great examples and will walk you through step by step
- It is most definitely a new approach that is on a level to any believer, very useful in witnessing to get a foot in the door leading to salvation
- It really can change your life if you let it
- If you want to find a good and new way to help others find and believe Christ you must attend
- It helps you understand what we as Christians are suppose to be doing in this world
- I can't describe it; you just have to go and experience it for yourself
- Informative... "Pushing" as in pushing you to not be a bump on a log Christian
- It is informative, encouraging, inspirational, and motivating
- It is a wake-up call
- This is a non-threatening opportunity to evaluate your relationship with Christ and learn ways to share that relationship
- You just need to experience it
- This is a few hours that will last an eternity, an eternity in Heaven not in Hell
- It will help you strengthen your walk and give you more confidence to share God
- It gives good practical guidelines and analogies that paint a picture that will stay with you
- It's a great learning experience that provides valuable information in how to effectively share the Gospel

- It was great, and all Christians should hear and practice this. I feel it helped me a lot
- It's a good refresher to remember what's really important.
- It's about making a difference in your life and the lives of everyone you know
- It's going to light a fire under you
- It will change your whole perspective on how God can use us even if we're saved
- It will help you understand how to present others with Good News it gave great examples and will walk you through step by step
- It is most definitely a new approach that is on a level to any believer, very useful in witnessing to get a foot in the door leading to salvation
- It really can change your life if you let it
- If you want to find a good and new way to help others find and believe Christ you must attend
- It helps you understand what we as Christians are suppose to be doing in this world
- I can't describe it; you just have to go and experience it for yourself
- Informative... "Pushing" as in pushing you to not be a bump on a log Christian
- It is informative, encouraging, inspirational, and motivating
- It is a wake-up call
- This is a non-threatening opportunity to evaluate your relationship with Christ and learn ways to share that relationship
- You just need to experience it
- This is a few hours that will last an eternity, an eternity in Heaven not in Hell
- It will help you strengthen your walk and give you more confidence to share God
- It gives good practical guidelines and analogies that paint a picture that will stay with you
- A great way to get help in telling others about Christ and not being afraid to do so. It gives new approaches to evangelism.
- You need to be there! Awesome
- You don't have to be special; you just need a concern for the lost
- I left feeling uplifted and had a feeling to tell people about Jesus
- If you have a hard time sharing Jesus with people this will help
- This is an eye opening time of teaching
- It is a step by step witnessing tool
- It will assure you that you can Make A Difference - that you can do something great for the kingdom of God
- If you want to live your life for Christ and truly make a difference you need to attend MAD event.
- A great way to get help in telling others about Christ and not being afraid to do so. It gives new approaches to evangelism